Cure Multiple Myeloma Corporation invites you to join us for one (or more) of our

ASK THE DOCTOR BREAKFASTS

We are hosting a series of breakfasts where multiple myeloma patients sit down with one of the multiple myeloma experts to address your concerns and discuss new advancements in the field.

Cure Multiple Myeloma Corp. is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization with a mission to assist myeloma patients and provide funds for a cure.

ASK THE DOCTOR BREAKFASTS

These breakfasts are designed with patients in mind. We bring experts in the multiple myeloma field together with patients in an informal atmosphere, where patients and caregivers can get answers to their questions, learn more about multiple myeloma and meet others with the disease. The price for admittance is one question per myeloma patient (but you can ask more!)

The educational series feature:

Dr. Craig Emmitt Cole, Assistant Professor Hematology & Oncology, Rogel Cancer Center, University of Michigan

Dr. Jeffrey Margolis, Hematologist and Oncologist, President of Michigan Healthcare Professionals, P.C. and Professor of Oncology at Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine

Dr. Joseph P. Uberti, Professor of Medicine & Oncology Director, Blood & Marrow Stem Cell Transplant Program, Lambert Webber Endowed Chair of Stem Cell Research, Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute, Wayne State University

Dr. Matthew Pianko, Clinical Assistant Professor of Internal Medicine, Hematology/Oncology, Rogel Cancer Center, U of M Medical School

Dr. Jeffrey Zonder, Professor of Oncology at Karmanos Cancer Institute, an MMRC center/Wayne State University School of Medicine

We will accommodate as many requests as space permits. We look forward to seeing you soon!

SAVE THE DATE! THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

FOR WINE & DINE IN THE D 2019
WESTIN BOOK CADILLAC, DETROIT

Wine & Dine in the D is a strolling dining experience featuring cuisine from 20 of Metro Detroit's finest restaurants, wines, craft beer and spirits from Michigan and around the world and live entertainment by the Ursula Walker/Buddy Budson Quintet. Proceeds raised go to Cure Multiple Myeloma Corporation to assist Michigan myeloma patients and to the Multiple Myeloma Research Foundation (MMRF), which aggressively funds research for a cure.

This year Wine & Dine in the D will take over the entire fourth floor of the Westin Book Cadillac on Thursday, September 5. The evening begins at 5:30 with a Multiple Myeloma roundtable by prominent doctors from around the country, followed by the wining and dining at 6:00.

Tickets for Wine & Dine in the D are $175 per person, and $275 for Patron tickets, which include admission to an Afterglow reception featuring a collection of extremely exceptional and rare Champagne.

Discounts are available for Multiple Myeloma patients. For more information, visit curemultiplemyeloma.org or call (248) 449-6663.

The mission of Cure Multiple Myeloma Corporation (CMMC) is to help build a Metro Detroit myeloma community, which can support patients and caregivers and to help fund next generation multiple myeloma treatments to extend patients' lives in pursuit of a cure. CMMC is a 501(c)(3), ID #47-4309020.
